AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Defendant Quietside states and alleges for its affirmative defenses to Plaintiff's Complaint:

34. Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

35. Plaintiff's Complaint fails to allege personal jurisdiction.

36. Quietside was a mere wholesale distributor of the product and had no input into the design, manufacture, instructions, or warnings related to the product, and had no actual knowledge of any product defect, and did not create any defect, rendering Quietside not liable under common law and pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 544.41.

37. At all relevant times, Quietside complied with all applicable laws, statutes, rules, regulations, and standards.

38. Plaintiff's insured knowingly and voluntarily assumed any and all risks as to matters alleged in the Complaint, and such assumption of the risk bars, in whole or in part, the damages Plaintiff seeks to recover.

39. At all times mentioned herein, Plaintiff's insured was negligent, careless, and at fault and acted so as to contribute substantially to any alleged risk of injuries and damages. Said negligence, carelessness, and fault of Plaintiff's insured bars, in whole or in part, the damages which Plaintiff seeks to recover herein.

40. Plaintiff's claims should be dismissed, reduced, offset, or barred in accordance with the principles of comparative negligence.

41. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrine of laches.

42. Quietside has not breached, materially or otherwise, any alleged agreement or contract with Plaintiff or Plaintiff's insured and/or any legal duty owed to Plaintiff or Plaintiff's insured.

43. The damages allegedly sustained by Plaintiff, if any, were not legally caused by Quietside, but instead were legally caused by intervening and superseding causes or circumstances.

44. If Plaintiff sustained injuries/damages in this action, which allegations are expressly denied, the injuries/damages were the proximate result of the actions or omissions of third parties over whom Quietside had no control, and for which Quietside cannot be liable.

45. The alleged injuries and/or damages of Plaintiff, if any, were the result of unavoidable circumstances that could not have been prevented by anyone.

46. If Plaintiff sustained injuries/damages in this action, which allegations are expressly denied, the injuries were solely caused by and attributable to unintended, unreasonable, and improper use of the Product by Plaintiff's insured.

47. Plaintiff's damages, if any, are barred in whole or in part by the failure of Plaintiff or Plaintiff's insured to mitigate such damages.

48. The Product was subject to abuse, misuse and/or unforeseeable modification and/or alteration, therefore Plaintiff's claims are barred.

49. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, as a result of substantial modification of the Product by persons other than Quietside.

50. The Product was free from all defects and was reasonably fit for its intended and reasonably anticipated use and was marketed with adequate and sufficient warnings.

51. At the time the Product was sold, it met or exceeded all applicable standards, regulations and laws and met the then prevailing state of the art relating to design and performance and, accordingly, Plaintiff's claims are barred.

52. The Product conformed to all applicable government standards, laws and regulations, and therefore, Plaintiff's claims are barred.

53. Plaintiff's damages, if any, were the result of an open and obvious risk of which Plaintiff's insured was or should have been aware and, accordingly, Plaintiff's claims are barred.

54. Plaintiff's causes of action are barred by the "sophisticated user," "knowledgeable user" or "knowledgeable intermediary" doctrine.

55. A practical and technically feasible alternative design is not available that would have prevented the harm for which Plaintiff seeks to recover without substantially impairing the usefulness, desirability, or intended purpose of said vehicle.

56. Plaintiff's insured failed to follow the warnings or instructions regarding the proper operation of the Product and, as such, Plaintiff's claims are barred.

57. Plaintiff's damages, if any, must be set off against any prior judgments, settlements, or any other payments received from a collateral source.

58. If Plaintiff or any other party has failed or fails to preserve evidence pertaining to the allegedly defective Product, then Plaintiff and/or the other party may not introduce evidence related to or based upon such lost, destroyed or altered evidence, therefore some or all of the claims asserted by Plaintiff and/or any other party may be barred.

59. To the extent not stated above, Quietside raises all affirmative defenses available under the law of the forum in which each respective claim arose.

60. Quietside specifically reserves the right to present other and further defenses after additional discovery and investigation.

WHEREFORE, Quietside demands judgment in its favor and against Plaintiff, together with costs, reasonable attorney's fees, and all other such relief that this Court deems proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Defendant Quietside demands a jury trial of all issues so triable.
